Report on Signature IIJS 2015 Road Shows in Turkey and Russia

To promote the 8th edition of Signature IIJS to be held from 20th – 23rd February, 2014 at Bombay Exhibition Centre, Mumbai, roadshows were conducted in Istanbul (Turkey) on 11th November, 2014 & in Moscow (Russia) on 13th November, 2014.

Key Objective:-

- To build strong bilateral trade relationship
- Interact with leading trade association and prospective traders to establish areas of corporation
- To Promote Signature IIJS 2015 amongst the local Jewelers
- Facilitate participation of trade/associations in the forthcoming Signature IIJS 2015 to be held from 20th 23rd February, 2015.

• Turkey, Istanbul (Market Visit in Istanbul on 10th November, 2014):-

Mr. Aanurag Dhoot, Director, Exhibitions & Trade Promotion along with Mr. Volkan Adakan, JTR coordinator for road show visited 6 leading diamond jewellery manufactures and loose stone wholesalers. The local companies met and received us with high enthusiasm and it was pleasing to learn that most of the members already had some business ties with India. They were quite aware about GJEPC and the leading events like IIJS and Signature IIJS since most of them had attended the past editions. In view of the upcoming opportunity at Signature IIJS 2015, they were once again furnished with all the necessary information and invited to attend the road show for more information. Majority of them expressed their interest to visit Signature IIJS 2015.

Meeting with representative of Local trade Association (11th November 2014)

Mr. Volkan arranged for a one-on-one meeting with Mr. Ayhan Guner, President of JTR (National association of Turkish Jewellers) who was quite impressed with the activities undertaken by GJEPC and expressed enthusiasm to attend the road show in Istanbul.

Signature IIJS 2015 Roadshow at Best Western Plus The President on 11th November, 2014

The event kick started with the opening remarks by Mr. Manish Gupta, Consul General, Consulate of India in Istanbul who welcomed all the delegates and spoke about the strength and potential of India in the gem & jewellery sector. He mainly talked about the main sectors of bilateral trade relationship with Turkey and touched upon the statistical data of the gem & jewellery sector.

Mr. Milan Choksi, Co-Convener - Exhibition Subcommittee (National) screened the promotional film and made the presentation on the evolution of the Indian gem & jewellery industry to all the dignitaries and attendees. In his address, Mr. Choksi spoke about the opportunity for Turkish companies to visit Mumbai and witness the Indian industry on a single platform. He keenly emphasized the attendees to visit Signature IIJS 2015, to have a glimpse of Indian market and to explore the possibilities of sourcing from the most competitive market for quality gems & jewellery. He also stated that India Today is a prominent player in global business and there were many synergies between the two countries in the G & J sector.

The attendees were encouraged to explore opportunities in the Indian market in terms of design, innovation, craftsmanship and competitive rates. They were invited to get a glimpse at the finest platform and seize the chance to leading manufactures under one roof at Signature IIJS 2015. The show will feature latest jewellery trends and designs and keeps one abreast of what's novel. Spread across 30,000 sq. m. with 580+ exhibitors and 1100+ booths, the number of visitors have been escalating 25% year on year. Truly, Signature IIJS is the KEY to India's Gem & Jewellery industry. Unlimited action... unlimited opportunities... only at Signature IIJS.

Mr. Ayhan Guner, President of JTR (National association of Turkish Jewellers) also appealed to all the attendees to visit Signature IIJS 2015 and expand business ties with India.

The Roadshow was attended by approx. 60 prominent trade members and Press/Media representatives from Turkey.

Moscow, Russia (Visit to Fashion Week organized by Estet group at Moscow on 12th November, 2014):-

Mr. Aanurag Dhoot, Director, Exhibitions & Trade Promotion along with Ms. Irina Litvinova, GJEPC's International Co-ordinators visited the Fashion Week organized by Estet group.

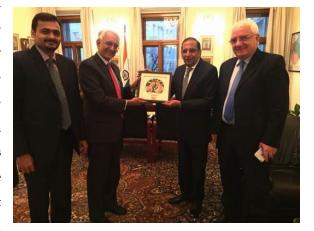

Meeting with Alex Popov and Irina Litvinova on 13th November 2014)

Mr. Anil Sankhwal and Mr. Aanurag Dhoot had a lunch on meeting with Russian counterparts and discussed about the preparation for the road show and also about the severity of impact on local currency and also on the G&J business environment in Russia due to the recent sanctions by UN. The situation was not favorable as Russia seems to have been going through its worst ever turmoil crisis in recent times.

Meeting with H. E. P. S. Raghavan, Ambassador of India in Russia on 13th November 2014)

Mr. Alex Popov, Ms. Irina Litvinova, Mr. Anil Sankhwal and Mr. Aanurag Dhoot visited the Embassy of India to meet with H. E. Mr. P. S. Raghavan, Ambassador of India in Russia. The Ambassador was pleased to learn that GJEPC has been actively creating business avenues with Russia through upcoming Diamond Conference in New Delhi and the Signature IIJS 2015. He was happy to learn that all these events would further transform the business relationship between India and Russia. He mentioned about personally tracking the developments about the upcoming conference and was keenly pursuing a confirmation from H. E. Mr. Vladimir Putin, President of Russian Federation for his valuable presence at the conference alongside Hon'ble Prime Minister of India, Shri Narendra Modi. He also suggested that GJEPC should ensure that the conference was a huge success and was hopeful to join the conference in New Delhi.

Dr. Amit Telang, Second Secretary Embassy of India made the welcome address and invited to the Russian Jewellers to further strengthen their ties with India through Signature IIJS 2015.

Mr. Anil Sankhwal, Member - Exhibition Subcommittee (International) delivered the welcome address along with the presentation on Evolution of the Indian Gem & Jewellery Industry and a Preview of Signature IIJS 2015. In the opening address, Mr. Sankhwal outlined the existing business relationship between India and Russia. He further underlined that the objective of the current visit to Moscow was to present the upcoming opportunity in the gem & jewellery sector.

Mr. Sankhwal, emphasized the attendees to explore India as a we market which has tremendous potential in the sector of Gem & Jewellery. He also highlighted that the Signature IIJS 2015 will unveil an exciting array of the latest trends in jewellery designs, styles and materials. The country's leading manufacturers and designers, each of them renowned for quality craftsmanship and innovation, are putting together collections that will dazzle and amaze you. Signature IIJS is a perfect platform to meet the toprated manufactures under one roof and explored the possibility of partnering with the Indian manufacturers. The show will feature 580+ Exhibitors, 1100+ Booths and the Exhibition Area will be spread across 30,000 sq m. The show was abuzz with 10,000 visitors from 350+ cities & towns across India and over 500 International visitors from 50+ countries over a period of four-days.

Mr. Sankhwal further spoke about the various events being organized by GJEPC and also enlightened the audience on the formalities and procedures for registration by introducing Ms. Irina Litvinova, GJEPC's International Coordinator who would assist them with further queries. Mr. Aanurag Dhoot then made a concluding note post presentation and thanked all the dignitaries, attendees and Press/Media persons for being present for the road show.

About 32 trade members from Moscow attended in the presentation.

Post presentation, several attendees expressed interest to attend Signature IIJS 2015.
