

Criteria - The Select Club

Jewellery Manufacturer By-Selection-Only

All Member companies intending to exhibit under The Select Club Section will have to submit their Company profiles in PowerPoint presentation per the below criteria for further consideration.

PART A

- Jewellery businesses with distinct design DNA.
- High design and narratives revolving around one-off pieces or collections should be at the heart of the brand. It should have a distinct design DNA underlining "exclusivity".
- Top finish and superior quality materials, ethically sourced Materials are typically sourced from reputable suppliers and are of the highest quality; coupled with superior quality and finish at par with global standards. Jewellery businesses that maintain supply chain integrity, promotes trust, SDG and overall maintains high ethical standards.
- Businesses investing in research, technology, innovation. R&D and adoption of new technology indicates that the brand is evolving and keeping the finger on the pulse of market trends.

Unlocking Global Trade

PART B

1. Company with own label or brand.
 - a. Details of brand registration in India

2. International presence in the form of foreign retail/ distributor/ company/ agency.
 - a. Copy of the agreement

3. Patent in design/ technology etc.
 - a. Details of patent registration

4. Full-fledged design department / designer with international repute.
 - a. Details of company's design team

5. Awards won at council design awards.

6. Global awards won for design / innovation/ excellence etc.

7. Participation in international couture shows like London, win, Hong Kong, Vicenza etc (name of show, year etc).

8. Advertisement in international luxury magazines.

9. Details of participation at GJEPC exhibition/ shows/ jewellery week etc
 - a. Details of company's presence on social handles / reach.

Guidelines -

The Select Club Applicants who are not allotted stall in The Select Club section will retain their previous Stall.

The Select Club Applicants must share their final presentation on or before 30th April 2026 via email on iijs@gjepcindia.com, Late submissions may affect their participation eligibility and the final selection process.