exhibitor(s), the Council reserves the right to disqualify such applicant(s) / exhibitor(s) from the participation at any of the IIJS Bharat show(s) & Concurrent IGJME Bharat Show.

- In case of any such instance where it comes to the attention of the Council that an exhibitor has procured a pass/badge under the Visitor category for its own representative by utilizing the name of a non-participating company and such person holding a visitor category pass/badge is found manning the exhibitor's booth during any time of the exhibition dates, then suitable action shall be taken by the Council against the said exhibitor as well as the holder of the visitor badge including but not limited to cancellation of booth for that exhibition & debarment from participation in any future shows which may be organized by GJEPC for both the companies involved thereof.

- In case it is discovered that a visitor enters the Exhibition holding an exhibitor badge and conducts any commercial activity as an Exhibitor, then suitable action shall be taken by the Council as it deems fit against the said person as well as the company who has issued the Exhibitor badge.

Code of conduct:

Exhibiting at trade shows and industry events presents a powerful opportunity for businesses to showcase their brand, connect with potential buyers, and build long term relationships. However, success on the exhibition floor doesn't happen by chance – it requires strategic planning, professional conduct, and consistent follow through.

This Code of Conduct is designed to help both new and seasoned exhibitors make the most of their participation.

Kindly refer to the enclosed CODE OF CONDUCT and kindly go through it carefully. Please ensure to adhere to the guidelines mentioned.
